SHERIFF CHAMPAGNE PROMOTES TWO EMPLOYEES

Sheriff Champagne is pleased to announce that he has promoted two employees to the rank of Captain.

Captain Donald Smith - Captain Smith began his Law Enforcement career as a Correctional Officer in January 1993. While in Corrections, he has had the ability of working in Transportation, Court Security / Bailiff and Court School all before being assigned to the Uniform Patrol Division. There he served as a Field Training Officer, attained the rank of Corporal, and was assigned as the Assistant Westbank Supervisor. After nearly eight years of service in the Patrol Division, Captain Smith was assigned to Criminal Investigation Division, where he attained the rank of Sergeant and Lieutenant serving as Commander of CID.

Captain Smith is currently the Assistant Chief of Investigations, covering Criminal Investigations Division, Crime Scene Investigations, Juvenile Investigations Division, Special Investigations Division, Special Operations Division, Hi-Tech / Cyber Crimes Division, Juvenile Justice Division and US Marshal's Office Liaison. Captain Smith resides in Des Allemands, Louisiana and has two children, Bailey and Trevor.

Captain Chad Faucheux - Captain Faucheux began his Law Enforcement career with St. Charles Sheriff's Office in 1995 in the patrol division. In April of 1997 he was transferred to corrections under the command of Captain Roland Ladreyt; then to Transportation where he moved up the ranks to Lieutenant. In 2005 he was transferred to a special assignment of constructing the St. Charles Sheriff's Office Shooting Range. Since that time he has overseen several construction projects including the construction of the Fleet Maintenance building, which he currently commands. Captain Faucheux resides in Destrehan with his wife Nori and two sons Luke and Logan.
